

Leatherback Turtle Eco-Volunteer Adventure in Panama

Day 1 (Monday) Bocas del Toro

Please plan to be in Bocas del Toro this morning either by flying in on an early flight on Monday, or arrive in Bocas del Toro on Sunday and stay the night in town on your own. You will be met by your research team either at the airport or at your hotel for your transfer to STC's Research Station at Soroopta Beach, Panama. Once settled in at the station, you will prepare for your first sea turtle night patrol. Overnight at STC (D)

Day 2 - 5 (Tuesday – Friday) Soroopta Beach

You will be at the STC Station for the next four nights. Days are on your own, make sure to bring books to read or other things to occupy your time during the day. Often a canal tour can be arranged. Sea turtle night patrols each evening.

Day 6 (Saturday) Bocas del Toro

In the morning you will be transferred back to the Bocas del Toro. You can plan to either fly out on Saturday (it may be possible to make the morning flight, but please check with STC before booking an early morning departure flight from Bocas del Toro) or stay the night in Bocas del Toro on your own and depart Bocas del Toro on Sunday. (B)
